23rd Avenue Corridor Improvements Project

Water main work between E Cherry Street and E Spring Street begins week of August 10

The week of August 10, crews will begin work north of E Cherry Street to replace the water main under the street. This work will start between E Cherry Street and E Spring Street, and is expected to last about two months and then continue north.

What to expect during upcoming work

Traffic changes

- Traffic between E Cherry and E Spring streets will be shifted to the west side of 23rd Avenue (see map to the right).
- Northbound and southbound traffic will be maintained during this work, though travel will be reduced to one lane in each direction.
- This traffic shift is expected to be in place August 10 through early October.
- Note: the full northbound closure and detour is not expected to begin in the area between E Cherry and E Union streets (Zone B) until early 2016.

Driveway impacts

- Neighbors can expect short-term driveway impacts. We will provide advance notification for any closures.

Occasional water service interruptions

- Seattle Public Utilities will provide advance notice to businesses and residents who will experience temporary water shut-offs while crews work on the new water main.

Transit, bicycle and pedestrian info

- Metro bus route #48 will be affected by this work. For temporary bus stop relocations check for posted Rider Alerts.
- To learn more, call Metro at 206-553-3000 or visit <http://metro.kingcounty.gov/alerts/>.
- Pedestrian and bicycle access will be maintained at all times.
- Flaggers will be present to assist pedestrians and help manage traffic.

WHAT TO EXPECT DURING CONSTRUCTION

- Typical work hours from 7 AM to 5 PM on weekdays
- Possible night and weekend work
- Longer travel times due to traffic changes
- Noise, dust and vibration
- Heavy equipment and trucks in the area
- Short-term driveway impacts on 23rd Avenue
- Occasional water service interruptions
- Temporary loss of some parking on side streets

Weekend closure of E Cherry Street intersection

Water main work is planned for the E Cherry Street intersection the weekend of Saturday, August 8 through Monday, August 10. To learn more, please sign up to receive our weekly email updates by visiting our website (see address below).
